

Liliya has Master degree in Economics and Psychology.

Liliya has over 21 years' experience in project management in the field of education for sustainable development, organizational and local development, social innovations, entrepreneurship etc. She has experience in organization and conduction of training in the following areas: effective communication, teamwork, development of creativity, motivation and leadership, time management, conflict management, management of crises and changes, as well as various content and methodology team building events for representatives of non-governmental and corporate organisations.

In addition, she is an author of several Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) programmes for social impact on different environmental and social issues. She is a co-founder in a start-up company „Interactive games“ and a creator of „Mind the gap“ game – a corporate social innovation in IT filed for social interaction and education for teenagers.

She is a certified gestalt psychotherapist with a private practice and has a number of specialisations in project management, human resources management and organisational development.